

Please keep the current limitations on media ownership in any one market. We need local access that the media giants do not supply in the event of emergencies.